

The "It" Facials to Book This Spring

A yen for fresher skin often coincides with the spring thaw when your complexion comes out from hiding under layers of scarves and oversized trapper hats. Here to help you put your best face forward are the most anticipated facials and in-demand treatments found at the country's top spas, plus skincare secrets from the pros on how to achieve instant pore perfection without an appointment.

Where: The Lapis spa at the Fontainebleau, Miami

What: Pure Oxygen Infusion

Formulated with coveted elixirs from Intraceuticals - a pioneer in oxygen therapy - this face refresher brightens and balances dull, uneven skin while minimizing hyperpigmentation from sun exposure. The spa is the only in Miami to offer the treatment, which celebs like Jennifer Lopez have booked before red carpet events. (50 minutes, $155)
